

Prodigo

Adj. [from the Latin prodigus, derived from prodigere, derived from agere meaning 'to drive', with the prefix prod- meaning 'forward'; thus 'to throw forward, to dissipate, to squander']

Type
Lazio IGP Syrah

Color
Intense ruby red

Grapes
100% Syrah

Vinification
Fermented with submerged cap

Bottle size
750 cc

Aging
In French oak barrels (1000 liters)

Production area
Le Ferriere

Pairings
Red meats and aged cheese

Soil
Clayey and sandy

Training system
Espalier (guyot)

Planting density 4000 vines/Ha

Harvest
September 25 – September 30

Tasting notes
On the nose, it is characterized by fruity scents of plum, raspberries, and blueberries,
with spicy notes of tobacco, leather, and nutmeg. Quite savory, with good acidity balanced by the smoothness of polyalcohols, with appropriate and fairly rounded tannins. It finishes with a return of forest fruits.

